

Shelterbelt and Tree Health Information Session
MD of Willow Creek Administration Building
Tuesday March 5, 2019
6 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Topics Include

Tree Planting

how to design and what are considerations site preparation and species selection

Windbreak maintenance

Weed control used in shelterbelts (chemical and non-chemical) Pruning, replanting, pests (major pest and pest management) - Pine Beetle, Boxelder Bug (Maple Bug)

Windbreak renovation

how to renovate shelterbelts –steps how to renovate shelterbelts

Air quality

shelterbelts around intensive livestock operation dust control in rural area

Economics of shelterbelts

Real cost of establishing shelterbelt Value added opportunities

This session is free and is targeted towards agriculture producers and rural residents residing in the M.D. of Willow Creek. Professionals from Alberta Agriculture and Forestry will deliver this session.

Call 403-625-3351 to register before March 1st - Only 30 seats available!

